INDEX TO VOL. LXXII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

AFR

AFRICA and the Near East, Railway Projects in, 558–569
African slavery, Portugal, Great Britain and, 836–851
Agricultural exodus and land ownership, 964–976
Agricultural schools and farm institutes, 1052–1064
Agriculture, small holdings and rival schemes, 421–431, 432–444
American Presidents and Southern patriotism, 1006–1029
Anglicised Judaism, 491–504
Animals in their Relation to Empire, 600–614
Apparitions of living and dead, 1001–1005
Argyle and trial of Marquis of Montrose, 1242–1259
Aristophanes and women in Parliament, 292–318
Armit (H. W.), Vivisection and the Central Nervous System, 397–411
Army Service and the Recruiting Difficulty, 505–516
Art, Is it a Failure? 125–136
Art Sales, Recent, 319–328
Athens, Female politicians in, 292–318
Australia, The Outlook from, 1–10
Australia, Treatment of juvenile offenders in, 953–963
Avebury (Lord), Private Property at Sea in Time of War, 1131–1140

BALFOUR (Mr.) on Eugenics, 546–557
Balkan States and Czardom of Old Serbia, 879–888
Balkan war, division of spoils, 1150–1154
Balkan War, England, India, and the, 1077–1084
Balkans, A Subaltern in the, in the Winter Campaign of 1877, 889–912

BUS

Banister case, marriage with deceased wife's sister, and Church discipline, 930–941
Barker (J. Ellis), Will a Tariff harm Lancashire? a Lesson from America, 329–347; Panama: the Difficulty and its Solution, 745–762
Bates (E. S.), Some Foreigners in Shakespeare's England, 110–124
Beasts, birds, and forests of India, danger of their extirpation, 137–148
Benjamin (Lewis S.), The Passing of the English Jew, 491–504
Bensusan (S. L.), The Unionist Party and the Small Holdings Act: some Suggestions for a Temporary Alternative Policy, 432–444
Bentinck (Lord Henry), The Dearth of Cottages for the Rural Labourer, 1175–1183
Bibliophiles and famous collections, 1030–1039
Blake (Lady), The Position of Women in China, 1040–1051
Book Sales, Recent, 1030–1039
Borneo, Rajah Brooke, and independence of Sarawak, 1202–1210
Boswell's Dutch Flirtation, 942–952
Bourbon princess and the Dunkelgraf Ludwig, 1168–1174
Brain and nerves, experiments on animals, 397–411
British Church, Ancient, its tithes and endowments, 985–1000
British Land and British Emigration, 964–976
British seamen for our merchant ships, 1114–1130
Brooks (Sydney), The Problem of the New York Police, 687–700
Buonaparte and Capt. Basil Hall at St. Helena, 718–731
Business and public life, University preparation for, 1260–1267

CAD

CADBURY (William A.) and E. D. Morel, The West African Slave Traffic: Britain's Duty towards Angola and San Thomé, 836–851
Caldwell (W.), The Political Outlook as seen by a British Canadian, 1065–1076
Canada and Australia, Emigration to, an Imperial problem, 1283–1306
Canada, Marriage Law in, The 'Ne Temere' and the, 570–580
Canadian view of British politics, 1065–1076
Capital Punishment, The Case for Abolition, 732–744
Catholic marriages and Canadian law, 570–580
Cavalry and artillery, registration of horses for, 11–31
Charlton (Hon. Mrs.), Animals in their Relation to Empire, 600–614
Chesser (Elizabeth Sloan), Convents in England: a Plea for State Inspection, 830–835; a reply, 977–984; a rejoinder, 1268–1273
Chesterfield (Lord), Some Unpublished Letters of, 277–291, 533–545
China, Political Sovereignty in, 44–53
China, The Dismemberment of, 645–664
China, The Position of Women in, 1040–1051
Chinese Reform, Some Aspects of, 615–626
Christianity in Hinduism, 701–717
Church, The, and divorce, 1085–1113
Church, The, and the Marriage Law, 930–941
Citizen army and national defence, lesson from South Africa, 517–520
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), The Conflict between Religion and Science, 783–797
Cocoa plantations, San Thomé and Angola, Slavery in, 836–851
Collings (Jesse), Rival Land Policies: a Reply to the Marquess of Lincolnshire, 88–95
Commonwealth, Life in City of London during the, 763–782
Convents in England: a Plea for State Inspection, 830–835
Convents, State Inspection of: a reply to Dr. Elizabeth Sloan Chesser, 977–984; a rejoinder, 1268–1273
Corbett-Smith (Captain A.), Some Aspects of Chinese Reform, 615–626
Cottages for the Rural Labourer, The Dearth of, 1175–1183
Cotton industry and Tariff Reform, 329–347
Crammond (Edgar), Imperial Defence and Finance, 221–247
Criminals and the Criminal Class, 371–381

FED

Cromwell at Drogheda, Fresh Light on, 471–490
Cromwell at Drogheda: a Reply to Mr. J. B. Williams, 1220–1241
Cruelty to animals in India, 600–614
Crystal Palace Handel Festival, 412–420

DECEASED wife's sister, Marriage with, law of the Church, 930–941
Delhi as capital of India, hope for native arts and handicrafts, 1274–1282
Dental Caries, The Prevalence of, in Modern Civilised Communities, 182–197
Dictionary of National Biography, retrospect, 1155–1167
Dillon (Dr. E. J.), The Dismemberment of China, 645–664
Divorce, The Royal Commission on, and the Church, 1085–1113
Doctors' bills, club practice, and insurance, 149–166
Dorroh (David Lewis), President Taft and the Solid South, 1006–1029
Drama in Japan and in England, My Thoughts about the, 1184–1201
Drogheda, Cromwell at, Fresh Light on, 471–490; a reply, 1220–1241

EAR, and other organs, theory of development, 1211–1219
Edinburgh Review, The, on Cardinal Newman, 69–87
Education, Rural and Agricultural, 1052–1064
Egyptology and scientific excavation, 382–396
Eishausen, The Mystery of: a Secret of the Bourbons, 1168–1174
Emigration from Great Britain, 964–976
Emperor Mutsu Hito of Japan, 627–644
England, India, and the Balkan War, 1077–1084
English Jew, The Passing of the, 491–504
English manners and foreign visitors in Elizabethan times, 110–124
Englishman, The First, Napoleon ever saw, 718–731
Ensor (R. C. K.), The Practical Case for a Legal Minimum Wage, 264–276
Eugenics, The Case for and against, 546–557
Evolution and transmutation of species, 783–797
Excavation, The Morality of, 382–396

FARM labourers' cottages and the Housing Act, 1175–1183
Federal Government, 676–686

FIC

Fiction-writing, bookselling, and circulating libraries, 822–829
Finland, Women in Parliament in, 167–181
Flowerdew (Herbert), The Lost Industry of Novel-writing, 822–829
Foreigners in Shakespeare's England, Some, 110–124
Fowler (Robert), Is Art a Failure? 125–136
Franco-German Crisis, The 'Truth' about the: a Reply to M. Philippe Millet, 32–43
Fuller (Sir Bampfylde), India Revisited, 461–470

GERMANY, Japan, and Australia, 1–10
Ghost of the Living, A, 1001–1005
Graham (Lady Helen), James, Marquis of Montrose: a Tercentenary Tribute, 1242–1259
Greek athletes and Olympic Games, 198–205
Gribble (Francis), Boswell's Dutch Flirtation, 942–952

HABITUAL criminals, Common-sense treatment of, 371–379
Hall (B.), Payment by Premium versus Payment by Fee, 149–166
Hall (Mrs.), The First Englishman Napoleon ever saw, 718–731
Handel Festival, The, 412–420
Havell (E. B.), The Message of Hope for India, 1274–1282
Heredity, Eugenics, and marriage restrictions, 546–557
Hibernian humour, 798–810
High Courts in India, The, 455–460
Hinduism, Christianity in, 701–717
Hindus and cruelty to animals, 600–614
Hogue (Hon. James Alexander), The Outlook from Australia, 1–10
Holland, Lord Chesterfield's diplomatic mission to, 277–291
Home Rule, Redistribution before, 445–454
Home Rule, Social Aspects of, 665–675
Horses for War, Our Shortage of: a Suggested Scheme for Mobilisation, 11–31
Hutton (R. H.), his biography of Cardinal Newman revised, 69–87
Hyacinthe's (Père) Marriage, 581–588

IMPERIAL Defence and strategic problems, 206–220
Imperial Defence and Finance, 221–247
Imperialism, Practical, 869–878
India Revisited, 461–470
India, The High Courts in, 455–460

LAN

India, The Message of Hope for, 1274–1282
India, Women of, need of legal and medical advisers for, 811–821
Indian Fauna, The Protection of the, 137–148
Indian Moslems and the war in Turkey, 1077–1084
International law and seizure of private property during war, 1131–1140
Internationalism, Labour and, 521–532
Ireland, Cromwell, and massacre at Drogheda, 471–490
Ireland, Over-representation of, in Parliament, 445–454
Irish Servants, The Humours of, 798–810
Irish social conditions and self-help, 665–675

JAPAN, Emperor of, Reminiscences of the late, 627–644
Japanese plays and actors compared with English, 1184–1201
Jews, English, The Passing of the, 491–504
Johnston (R. F.), Political Sovereignty in China, 44–53
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), The Protection of the Indian Fauna, 137–148; Railway Projects in Africa and the Near East, 558–569
Journey's End, At a, 1155–1167
Judges in India and the shrinking rupee, 455–460
Juvenile offenders, legislation in Australia, 953–963

KERR (Capt. Mark), The Spirit of Nelson, 852–868
Kinderaley (F. B.), State Inspection of Convents: a reply to Dr. Elizabeth Sloan Chesser, 977–984
King-Emperor's visit to India, and Indian progress, 461–470
Kinloch-Cooke (Sir Clement), Migration within the Empire, 1283–1306
Knox (Major-Gen. Sir William G.), The Old Armour and the New, 248–263; A Subaltern in the Balkans in the Winter Campaign of 1877, 889–912

LABOUR and Internationalism, 521–532
Lancashire, Will a Tariff harm? 329–347
Land ownership and agriculture, rival schemes, 421–431, 432–444
Land Taxes, The Blight of the: why they must be repealed, 96–109
Land tenure and small holdings, 88–95

LAT

Lathbury (D. C.), The Church and the Marriage Law, 930–941
Leathes (Stanley), The Universities and the Public Service, 1260–1267
Le Blond (Mrs. Aubrey), The Mystery of Eishausen: a Secret of the Bourbons, 1168–1174
Lee (Sir Sidney), At a Journey's End, 1155–1167
Legal Minimum Wage, The Practical Case for a, 264–276
Lethbridge (Sir Roper), The Endowments of the Ancient British Church in Wales, 985–1000
Lilly (W. S.), Criminals and the Criminal Class, 371–381; The Problem of Marriage and Divorce: The Passing of Marriage, 1103–1113
Lincolnshire (Marquess of) on Land Policies, replies to, 88–95, 421–431
Lindsay (Prof. James A.), The Case for and against Eugenics, 546–557
Listener, The, Speaks, 1211–1219
Llan Awstin, A Comedy of: sketched from life, 348–370
London in the Year 1651, A Visit to, 763–782
Longford (Joseph H.), Reminiscences of the late Emperor of Japan, 627–644; The Manning of our Merchant Marine, 1114–1130
Loudon (Katharine M.), Some Unpublished Letters of Lord Chesterfield, 277–291, 533–545
Lyttelton (Hon. Mrs. Edwd.), Humours of Irish Servants, 798–810

MACKELLAR (Sir Charles), The Neglected Child in New South Wales, 953–963
Mahabharata, the Beatitudes, and Hindu morality, 701–717
Mallock (W. H.), 'Women in Parliament': acted at Athens B.C. 393, reproduced from the Greek of Aristophanes, 292–318
Markino (Yoshio), My Thoughts about the Drama in Japan and in England, 1184–1201
Marriage and divorce, The Church and, 930–941, 1085–1113
Marriage and Divorce, The Problem of: The Church and the Report of the Royal Commission, 1085–1102; The Passing of Marriage, 1103–1113
Marriage Law in Canada, The 'Ne Temere' and the, 570–580
Marriott (J. A. R.), Syndicalism and Socialism, 913–929
Medd (J. C.), Rural and Agricultural Education, 1052–1064
Mercantile Marine, The Manning of our, 1114–1130

NUN

Methuen (Field-Marshal Lord), The Territorial Forces, 517–520
Migration within the Empire, 1283–1306
Mikado, Shogun, and progress in Japan, 627–644
Millet (Philippe) on Morocco, reply to, 32–43
Mitra (S. M.), Christianity in Hinduism, 701–717; England, India, and the Balkan War, 1077–1084
Monarchy in China, Teaching of Mencius and Confucius, 44–53
Montenegro and Czardom of the Serbs, 879–888
Montrose (James, Marquis of): a Tercentenary Tribute, 1242–1259
Morel (E. D.), The 'Truth' about the Franco-German Crisis: a Reply to M. Philippe Millet, 32–43; The West African Slave Traffic: Britain's Duty towards Angola and San Thomé, 836–851
Morrison-Bell (Major Clive), Redistribution before Home Rule, 445–454
Morocco, Franco-German dispute, and British diplomacy, 32–43
Moslems and Christians in Turkish Empire, 1141–1149
Moslems of India and the War in Turkey, 1077–1084
Moyes (Mgr. Canon), Père Hyacinthe's Marriage, 581–588
Murder, Death penalty for, argument against, 732–744
Murray (Major Stewart L.), Some Strategic Problems of the Empire, 206–220
Murray (Rev. Robert H.), Cromwell at Drogheda: a Reply to Mr. J. B. Williams, 1220–1241

NAPOLEON, The First Englishman he ever saw, 718–731
Naval expenditure of the great Powers, 221–247
Near East, The Outlook in the: For El Islâm, 1141–1149; The Balkan Crisis in a Nutshell, 1150–1134
Nelson, The Spirit of, 852–868
Newman (Cardinal), The 'Edinburgh Review' on, 69–87
New South Wales, The Neglected Child in, 953–963
Newton-Robinson (Charles), The Blight of the Land Taxes: why they must be repealed, 96–109
New York Police, The Problem of the, 687–700
Novel-writing, The Lost Industry of, 822–829
Nuns in England and inspection of convents, 830–835, 977–984

OLD

OLD Armour, The, and the New, 248–263
Olympic Athletes, 198–205
Oratorio v. Opera and Handel's debt to other composers, 412–420
Osborn (E. B.), Olympic Athletes, 198–205
Ozanne (J. W.), The Outlook in the Near East: The Balkan Crisis in a Nutshell, 1150–1154

PANAMA: the Difficulty and its Solution, 745–762
Parker (Sir Gilbert), A Word for Small Ownership in reply to Lord Lincolnshire, 421–431; British Land and British Emigration, 964–976
Parliament of Finland and its women members, 167–181
Passavalli (Mgr.) and Père Hyacinthe's marriage, 581–588
Patriotism and duty as illustrated by Nelson, 852–868
Patriotism, socialism, and the 'International,' 521–532
Payment by Premium versus Payment by Fee, 149–166
Peacock (Wadham), Nicolas of Montenegro and the Czardom of the Serbs, 879–888
Peninsular War, Adventures at Salamanca, 54–68
Petrie (Prof. Flinders), Three Hours: 24 August 410: a Reconstruction, 589–599
Pickthall (Marmaduke), The Outlook in the Near East: For El Islâm, 1141–1149
Picture sales, record prices, 319–328
Police corruption in New York, 687–700
Political Outlook, The, as seen by a British Canadian, 1065–1076
Pollock (Lieut.-Col. Alsager), Army Service and the Recruiting Difficulty, 505–516
Popham (Mrs. Cecil), A Comedy of Llan Awstin: sketched from life, 348–370
Post-Impressionism, Futurism, and modern Art, 125–136
Prinsep (Sir Henry T.), The High Courts in India, 455–460
Private Property at Sea in Time of War, 1131–1140
Purdâ, Behind the, 811–821

RAILWAY Projects in Africa and the Near East, 558–569
Recruiting Difficulty, Army Service and the, 505–516
Redistribution before Home Rule, 445–454

SYN

Religion and Science, The Conflict between, 783–797
Republican China, Anarchy in, 645–664
Rival Land Policies: a Reply to the Marquess of Lincolnshire, 88–95
Roberts (W.), Recent Art Sales, 319–328; Recent Book Sales, 1030–1039
Rolleston (Capt. Charles), Behind the Purdâ, 811–821
Rome and the Goths, 589–599
Rural and Agricultural Education, 1052–1064
Russo-Turkish War, British officer's adventures in the, 889–912

SALAMANCA, Captain Synge's Experiences at: a War Memory of a 10th Hussar, 54–68
Samuel (Herbert), Federal Government, 676–686
Sarawak, The Future of, 1202–1210
Schofield (Major H. N.), Our Shortage of Horses for War: a Suggested Scheme for Mobilisation, 11–31
Schuster (A. F.), Capital Punishment: the Case for Abolition, 732–744
Science, Religion and, The Conflict between, 783–797
Sellers (Edith), Where Women sit in Parliament, 167–181
Servia, Montenegro, and Old Serb dynasties, 879–888
Shakespeare's England, Some Foreigners in, 110–124
Slave Traffic, The West African: Britain's Duty towards Angola and San Thomé, 836–851
Small Holdings Act, The Unionist Party and the: some Suggestions for a Temporary Alternative Policy, 432–444
Small Ownership, A Word for, in reply to Lord Lincolnshire, 421–431
Snead-Cox (J. G.), The 'Ne Temere' and the Marriage Law in Canada, 570–580
Social and economic reform in China, 615–626
Soldiers, their grievances, training, and prospects, 505–516
State Inspection of Convents: a Rejoinder, 1268–1273
Statham (H. Heathcote), The Handel Festival, 412–420
Stewart (Charles Edward), A Visit to London in the Year 1651, 763–782
Strategic Problems of the Empire, Some, 206–220
Syndicalism and Socialism, 913–929
Synge's (Captain) Experiences at Salamanca: a War Memory of a 10th Hussar, 54–68

TAF

TAFT (President) and the Solid South, 1006–1029
Tariff, A, Will it harm Lancashire? a Lesson from America, 329–347
Tariff Reform and social construction from a Canadian point of view, 1065–1076
Tariff Reform and unification of the British Empire, 869–878
Taxation of land values under the 'People's Budget,' 96–109
Teeth, Disease of, and its prevention, 182–197
Territorial Forces, The, 517–520
Three Hours: 2½ August 1910: a Reconstruction, 589–599
Tottenham (Lieut.-Col. F. St. L.), Captain Synge's Experiences at Salamanca: A War Memory of a 10th Hussar, 54–68
Trade-unionism and syndicalism, 913–929
Trans-Sahara and Trans-Persian railways, 558–569

UNDERWOOD (Arthur S.), The Prevalence of Dental Caries in Modern Civilised Communities, 182–197
Unionist Party, The, and the Small Holdings Act, 432–444
United Kingdom and the Empire, decentralisation and federalism, 676–686
United States, Great Britain and Panama Canal, 745–762
Universities, The, and the Public Service, 1260–1267

VERE (Stephen de), Social Aspects of Home Rule, 665–675
Vivisection and the Central Nervous System, 397–411

WAGE-EARNERS, employers, landlords, and profit-sharing, 913–929

ZEN

Wales, The Endowments of the Ancient British Church, 985–1000
Wallis (H. M.), The Listener Speaks, 1211–1219
War, ancient and modern, and national military training, 248–263
War, Horses for, Our Shortage of: a Suggested Scheme for Mobilisation, 11–31
Ward (Wilfrid), The Edinburgh Review on Cardinal Newman, 69–87; A Ghost of the Living, 1001–1005
Ware (Fabian), Labour and Internationalism, 521–532
Weigall (Arthur E. P. B.), The Morality of Excavation, 382–396
Welldon (Bishop), The Problem of Marriage and Divorce: The Church and the Report of the Royal Commission, 1085–1102
Welsh wooing and wedding, 348–370
Western civilisation and Chinese progress, 615–626
Westminster (Duke of), Practical Imperialism, 869–878
White (Arnold), The Future of Sarawak, 1202–1210
Williams (J. B.), Fresh Light on Cromwell at Drogheda, 471–490; a reply, 1220–1241
Women in China, The Position of, 1040–1051
'Women in Parliament': acted at Athens B.C. 393, 292–318
Women, Where they sit in Parliament, 167–181
Workers and wages, State interference or voluntary agreement, 264–276

YELLOW peril, The, and Australia, 1–10

ZELIDE (Mme. de Charrière) and Boswell, 942–952
Zenana women of India, legal and medical advisers for, 811–821

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON